Fruit Inspectors Make A Clean Up

INSPECTORS CHECK CITY BOUND FRUIT.—In a determined effort to stop the flow of moth-infested, rot-infected, and green peaches that have been reaching city markets, inspectors of the Fruit Inspection Branch, last Thursday and Friday nights stopped city bound fruit trucks for inspection of their loads. The inspections were made at the Fruitland weigh scales on the Queen Elizabeth Way, truckers who tried to avoid inspection by travelling over other highways being compelled to turn down to the inspection point. In upper left photograph, two inspectors are seen checking fruit on one of the trucks. At the left is Harry Greenwood and at the right is Lloyd K. Southward—former flight-lieutenant in the R.C.A.F., who was awarded the D.F.C. At upper right, a group of inspectors is seen as they took notes on a load which did not meet with requirements, the worried trucker standing with his back to the camera. Lower left shows Inspector Greenwood making a close examination of peaches. Lower right shows another group of inspectors as they "swarmed" around the back of a truck.

INSPECTORS HAVE A FIELD DAY

Chief Inspector Harry Ponton, Dominion Fruit Division and some of his inspectors had a field day last week, particularly on Thursday and Friday night. They also gave Hamilton market a severe going over two or three times and plenty of fruit was condemned or placed in detention.

Truckers were their big job on Thursday and Friday evenings, when using the highway scales as a stopping point they went through a great many loads. Cleared some, condemned some and placed others in detention. This thorough inspection of truckers outfits was a regular thing in pre-war days, but with the depleted staff at his command the past three years Mr. Ponton was unable to handle the situation properly, much as he so desired.

All told about 25,000 baskets of peaches, besides, tomatoes and grapes were inspected and allocated to their proper channels. This entailed a lot of work and could not be continued for the balance of the season owing to the shortage of staff.

From my viewpoint I do not believe that the law of the land should be too harsh on the truckers for transporting the type of rubbish that has been placed in containers this season, any more than the law should be just as harsh on the railway and express companies. None of the three modes of transportation are to blame for what is in the containers. That is the fruit growers' fault. He is the man who picked and packed the green, immature, worm-infested, disease-infested fruit and sold it. Not the trucker or the railwayman.

The minority growers throughout this district, who have been the direct cause of all the hub-bub of complaints all over Ontario, have been riding for a fall for the past three years. Now he is going to be toppled. There is not much doubt that Dominion laws covering the picking, packing and shipping of fruit will be greatly strengthened before another fruit season rolls around. Then the good, honest grower will get his just reward and the crook grower will get his earned deserts.

I also believe that the Ontario Department of Agriculture will step into the picture this winter and put some laws on the books that will wake the crooked grower up, and will be acclaimed by the honest grower. I would like to see legislation passed that would make central packing compulsory. Then the properly picked, graded and packed fruit would go out to the public and it would make no difference whether the lono covering was red, white or black. The good gods would be in the container.

If the Hon. Tom Kennedy, in his position as Minister of Agriculture in the Ontario government, wants to protect and develop the great fruit industry of this district, he will have such legislation passed and by so doing will save the industry and protect the buying public.

This is my final word on the peach subject. I believe I have done a good deed for the whole Niagara district, but there is one thing certain, and that is that I am going to do a lot of fighting between now and next strawberry time to have the Dominion laws strengthened and new legislation passed by the Ontario Government.

Outside of central packing I am going to do my gosh-dangest to have flying patrols of inspectors working over the highways checking fruit stands, truckers and farmers right from strawberry time until the snow-balls arrive, even if it takes 500 men to do the job. It would be the greatest money per spent both from the industry's standpoint and the standpoint of the buying public.

DRIBERY AND CORRUPTION (Peterborough Examiner)

Since the beginning of the peach season many newspapers have complained about the quality of the fruit which is being offered to the public as the finest quality.

No papers have been louder in their condemnation of this sort of cheating than the two Ottawa dailies. And yet—O tempora, O mores—both have confessed that they have now received baskets of luscious fruit from somebody in Grimsby, who is interested in the fruit industry of that town, and their wrath has been notably appeased!

This is the sort of thing which turns the hearts of provincial newspapermen to gall in their breasts. The Sardanapalian rascals of The Journal and Citizen lol on couches, with wreaths hanging from their ears, eating free fruit and praising the wily Phoenicians of Grimsby, while we must pay out cash for peaches which look and taste like cricket-balls. It's not the fruit we care about; it's the injustice!

PULPIT DEDICATED HAMILTON MARKET

Mitchell Wants Speed Reduced

North Grimsby Councillor Will Again Request That West End Be a Restricted Area.

With the motor car speed limit on highways now back to its pre-war figure of 50 miles an hour, members of North Grimsby township council, it has been intimated by William Mitchell, will once more seek to have the Highways Department place a 30-mile an hour limit in the thickly populated area along No. 8 highway, both east and west of the town limits.

Expressing the opinion that "50 is entirely too fast for any one to drive in those areas where houses are almost as close together as in town," Mr. Mitchell said he would sponsor a motion to this effect at the next meeting of council.

A similar request from North Grimsby council—made prior to the war—was turned down by the Department who ruled that there was insufficient reason to reduce the speed.

Change The Clock Saturday Night

Daylight saving comes to an end in Canada on Sunday morning at 2 a.m. which is not going to hurt the feelings of anybody, particularly the housewife with kids going to school.

If you do not want to be too early for church you better make sure that you set the watches and clocks back one hour before you climb into bed on Saturday night.

Installed In Old St. Andrew's Church In Memory Of Leslie M. Nelles By His Sons—Service By Bishop Broughall.

In a simple act of dedication last Sunday evening by the Right Rev'd. L. W. B. Broughall, a beautiful carved oak pulpit and low choir-screen were set apart for their sacred function in St. Andrew's Church.

At the conclusion of Evensong; the Rector approached the sanctuary and addressed the Bishop as follows:—"Reverend father in God, a pulpit and choir-screen having been set up, installed and given to St. Andrew's Church to the glory of God and in memory of Leslie Millard Nelles, I do now, on behalf of the donors, the Churchwardens, the congregation and myself, beg that it may be dedicated at your hand and prayer."

After a prayer before the altar, the Bishop then proceeded to the (Continued on page 8)

BIG DEAL

Pettit and Whyte Agency swung the biggest real estate deal yesterday, that has been made in the Fruit Belt since 1929. They sold the Mansion Apartment building, the triplex brick house on Elizabeth street and the adjoining vacant land to Howard Young, Main east. The C. J. Eames Estate were the owners. Mr. Young contemplates many improvements to the property.

Grimsby Idiots Still At Large

Place Obstructions In Main Street Traffic Lanes That May Have Caused Accidents And Deaths.

Chief of Police W. W. Turner is on the trail of one or more idiots in Grimsby, and any assistance or information that any person can give him will be greatly appreciated, as well as helping to protect the Town from serious damage, or even a damage suit.

Any person or persons that would do an act such as was committed early Sunday morning are nothing but plain idiots and should be locked up in an institution for life. There is no doubt but what they will go over the road if the Chief gets his hands on them.

Between one and one-thirty Sunday morning while the Chief answered a call to the west end of town, some person or persons with nothing but mentalities of a fool, took the four bus parking stand (Continued on page 8)

Get Ready For Clothing Drive

Grimsby Asked To Donate Cast-Off Clothing For Suffering Peoples, October 9th To 13th.

There is a crying need in Europe for Canadian cast-off clothing, and to answer that cry of distress a gigantic drive for discarded clothing of all kinds and descriptions is being made across Canada.

Grimsby will not be lagging in this drive. Wm. Hewson is Chairman of the local committee and he and his co-workers are laying plans to do a good job and do it in a hurry.

The week of Tuesday, October 9th to 13th, have been the dates chosen for the Grimsby collection and it is up to every citizen to start right now and sort over their clothes and lay out what they can spare.

Next week full information about this drive will appear in these columns.

Great Possibility That New Regulations Will Be Put In Force Regarding Coverings On Fruit Baskets—Many Complaints Received.

There is every indication that the civic property and license committee of Hamilton will attempt to get authority to order the sale of peaches on Central Market, without lono covers, but that is not likely to be effected in time to benefit—or protect—buyers this year.

A protest had been sent by the committee to H. H. Ponton, Dominion food inspector, who has replied that he "cannot visualize our department attempting to interfere or override a by-law by the city of this nature." He stated that his department had never suggested that peaches be sold with a Tarratan or any other cover. Mr. Ponton also expressed appreciation of the co-operation of the market management, given to the department's inspecting staff, "in protecting the public from receiving produce which fails to comply with our grades and other regulations." He suggested this was a matter to be taken up with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Mayor Lawrence was under the impression that the covers were ordered on for sanitary reasons. (Continued on Page 7)

Once Drew Relief Now Pays Taxes

Blind Man Becomes Self Supporting Through Efforts of Blind Institute—Tag Day On Saturday.

Five years ago Oliver Watt wasn't much good to himself or anyone else. He was the only blind man in the township and his neighbours thought that when a man was blind the only thing for him to do was to get what relief he could from the municipal authorities and cause as little trouble as possible. Oliver had no other ideas himself, but he got a new slant on things one day when another blind man called on him. This was an official of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind and Oliver learned from him that he and his friends were all wrong. Oliver was a husky chap. He had no education to speak of, but his hands were good and his intelligence was average.

The other night Oliver was sitting with a friend of his in a corner of the bowling alley. "As near as I can make it," said the friend, "you'll have to pay $54.36." The (Continued on Page 7)

TOD DALEY GOES OVERSEAS

It was with the greatest gratification that I read last week in the daily press that Ontario's Labor Minister, Charles Tod Daley of Lincoln was leaving this week for Paris, to represent the Greatest Province in the Dominion of Canada, at the International Labor Conference to be held in this Parisian City at the beginning of October.

I am particularly pleased over this appointment by Premier Geo. Drew, because if there is anything in the world that a Newspaperman hates it is the fact that he picked a loser. "Little Dyke" and I put a lot of thought on the last provincial election. We believed that Ontario needed George Drew. We also believed that George Drew needed Tod Daley. We believed that the people of Lincoln county needed Tod Daley. We worked and acted accordingly. I do not believe that any one in Grimsby has a regret that they went to the polls and voted for Tod Daley. I certainly have no regrets.

Tod Daley came from behind a grocery counter, just the same as many a smart man came from between the plow handles or out of a print shop. Tod Daley has brains in his head and a feeling in his heart for somebody else beside Tod Daley.

Tod Daley will be a worthy representative in Paris of the Greatest County, of the Greatest Province, of the Great Dominion of Canada.

SMALL TOWN

I like to live in small towns where the folks don't gousse and shove
Where one may take time off to live and dream and laugh and love.
I like the peace and comfort and the sweet security
Of friends that I can lean on and that can lean on me.

Here neighbor talks with neighbor across the back-yard fence
Of Hilda's new "sleek" city beau, of government expense,
Of Mary Jane's scant swimming suit, of Aunt Sue's last prize quilt,
Of the big party Sally Lou gave for her cousin, Milt,
Of bugging the potato crop, of the high Price of eggs,
Of White's goat eating Higgins' clothes, of buying pickle kegs,
Of Widow Brown's fawn Jersey cow that reached through Smith's back door.
And spilled a pan of peach preserve upon the kitchen floor.

I love the crimson sunsets and the shadows stretching far,
The western sky's slow paling, the birth of the first star,
The dusky distance closing in, the dark'ning hills about,
When the village draws its curtains and shuts the mad world out;
I love the nights of peaceful rest, the cool breath of the dawn;
I envy none the fame and spoils of the big restless town.

HERE'S WHERE YOUR TAXES ARE GOING

Last week I told you that Grimsby rate-payers were faced with an expenditure in the next two years of $125,000 to $175,000, on debenture issue of course. I gave you some reasons for the expenditure. Now I am going to give you some more reasons.

It has been a well known fact in municipal circles for the past six years that the sewage disposal plant was not operating efficiently. In fact was too small to handle the amount of material that every 24 hours was run into it. Owing to the war the Ontario Department of Health were very tolerant. Now they have stepped down and in no uncertain words have informed Town Council that the plant must not only be put in proper working condition but enlarged. Naturally it must be enlarged in order to handle all the sewage that will accrue from the new sewer lines that will have to be laid.

The securing by Town Council of the firm of Gore and Storrie, sewage engineers, to make a complete survey of the whole town for sewer purposes is a step in the right direction. At the present time there is only a small portion of the town with sewer connections. Sewers must be provided for the rest of the town. As an example, the Fairview avenue district.

In the past four years, a conservative estimate would place the number of new houses that would have been erected at around 50, but owing to the nature of the soil and the lack of sewers Town Council could not countenance the construction of new homes there. A good many building lots that the town had on tax rolls were sold, but with the distinct understanding that no homes could be constructed until such time as sewers were laid. At the present moment the Town has in various parts of the town approximately 150 building lots. Lots that should have houses on them. But until such time as sewers are put in, it is impossible to have those houses erected.

At the time that sewers go in, water mains have to go in. Sewers and water mains cost money. That also brings us back to the reservoir question again. Also enlargements at the pump house at the lake. It all means money, but if Grimsby is going to grow and continue to be the dominating town of Lincoln county, that money must be spent.

Figures are the most deceiving thing in the world. You look at a string of numerals with a dollar sign in front of it and you immediately jump to the conclusion that you are going bankrupt. As a matter of fact you are only spending money to increase the valuation of what you have already invested, and the little increase that will occur in your taxes will never be noticed.

I am ready to gamble all the bum peaches that have been shipped out of the Grimsby district in the past six weeks, and that is a lot of them, that the minute that restrictions are taken off of building materials and Shafer Bros. and the other contracting firms in Grimsby can secure labor, that over 300 homes will be erected in Grimsby within a two year period, but only if sewers and water mains are made available.

Now then just sit down and figure out the difference in the town assessment between 300 vacant lots and the same 300 lots with homes on them that cost anywhere from $3,500 to $10,000 to erect. The vacant lot is assessed, if privately owned, for about $100. If owned by the town for nothing. The same lot with a new house on it will be assessed for anywhere from $1,500 to $6,000. That folks is where the big bulk of the money will come from to keep your tax rate down around the 30 mill mark, after the first one or two years. It will still be the lowest in Canada for a town that is as big and as great as Grimsby is.

Next week I am going to tell you about a few other expenditures that will have to be made. But all on the same line. Spend it today and get it back two years from now. You cannot grow and prosper if you do not spend money, judiciously of course. Grimsby cannot be held back. It must go ahead. It must prosper. It's people must prosper. But to do it we must spend money: In the end we will be a thousand-fold better off.

Remember—GREATER GRIMSBY.

HOLD YOUR BONDS

The man who sells a previously purchased victory bond merely to raise the money to buy one in the coming loan is contributing nothing to the national effort. Neither is the bond salesman who advocates such a course.

Someone or some financial institution must take the old bond off his hands and therefore no new money comes to the help of the country. Quotas raised by these means are hollow and expensive victories.

The object of this new loan, and all those preceding it, is twofold, first to raise new money to finance the war effort, second to drain off surplus purchasing power to prevent inflationary price competition for scarce foods. Once the direct bills of the war are paid and consumer goods are again available in normal volume, we can begin to reverse the process. Bonds can be converted into money and money into goods.

In the meantime the important thing

Have A Heart

Reprinted from The Herald (Montreal), Sept. 6.

for the average individual is to plan to buy bonds out of current savings. This time the load must bear largely on the small investor because the big companies and financial institutions, which were major subscribers to previous loans, now face the immediate task of converting industry from war to peace. Hundreds of millions of dollars must be spent on new plant equipment, and supplies so that civilian jobs can be opened quickly and a flow of civilian goods started.

STRIKES WILL HINDER RECONVERSION

(By Thomas E. Flynn, Assistant Editor, The International Teamster, official magazine of The Teamsters' International Union A.F. of L., in its September issue.)

It is legal to strike again. It is also legal to go barefoot. But in either case you may stub your toe.

The condition confronts us today of which I spoke to the Southern Conference of Teamsters in Memphis in November, 1943.

We are entering the period of reconversion with our national economy in a very delicate condition. To withstand the shock of rapid change from the totalitarian economy of war to the individualistic economy of peace, we must use our heads.

An orgy of strikes will prevent an orderly change. It will cause one of two things, either one of them destructive to organized labor. They are:

1. It will throw the country into a tailspin and create a depression of unprecedented proportions.
2. It will force Congress to enact drastic laws with drastic penalties for strikes.

In either case we will go back into the period of rigid government control from which we are just emerging. We will be regimented in the event of serious depression. The government will be forced to take over industry.

And certainly we will be regimented if Congress enacts a code of labor laws which outlaws strikes and repeals the favourable legislation enacted during the administration of President Roosevelt.

I do not mean to say that we should outlaw the strike. But I most emphatically repeat what I told the Southern Conference of Teamsters almost two years ago—that no future strike can succeed which does not have public sympathy.

We will not have public sympathy if we walk around with a chip on our shoulder tying up industry every time some business agent has a bellyache.

We must also realize that five million war veterans will be returning to civil life within the next few months. These men will want to work at good wages to make up for the time they lost in service.

We have preserved their wages for them. Most of them will be grateful to us for that. But we will lose this gratitude if we don't let them work. And how can they work if industry is paralyzed by strikes?

That will arouse their hostility and we will have created the condition for which many heartless employers have hoped—the conflict between labor and veterans.

The function of a union is to provide men with work at good wages. It is not the function of a union to keep its members in hunger and idleness.

Unions which do that will cease to exist. Either they will be legislated out of existence or their members will quit in disgust and join other unions which will provide them with jobs.

The Teamsters' Union has kept abreast of changing conditions during the last 40 years. It has foreseen changes and has been prepared to meet them intelligently.

We have had bitter strikes in defense of our fundamental rights. We may have them again. But a strike must be in defense of fundamental rights and the issue must be great enough to compensate for the penalty a worker pays in every strike, even if he wins.

A union which leads its members out on strike for a trivial question is false to its trust. It is false to the entire labor movement and is inviting trouble for the rest of labor.

The period of reconversion calls for clear heads and strong characters in labor leadership. We must help the nation through the crisis of peace, just as we helped it through the crisis of war.

FOR A' THAT

Scotland's leaders have asked Hugh Dalton, President of the Board of Trade, if he is aware that nearly all tartan material in stock in that country, is being reserved for export.

These leaders plan a stiff protest because they claim Scotsmen stand in peril of losing their kilts. Thus Scotsmen who love to parade in kilts, are being compelled to wear pants. Equally hard hit too, they claim, are Scottish children who for ages have worn plaid kilts as a form of national dress.

And all because the demand from abroad, and particularly by women in the United States, for the colorful plaid cloth, has caused a great shortage.

But the Scot has one consolation. Even if he has to wear pants instead of a kilt, he is still a man for a' that.

THE BATTLE OF PRICES

There is one battle yet to win
Before we can sit back and grin;
Inflation still is set to go,
It wouldn't take much help you know
To start a landslide like we had
After the other war—when dad Came home all fresh and glowing
And tried to get a business going.

He didn't have a chance—they said,
With prices soaring overhead,
He just was getting under way
When bang!—deflation came one day
And he—with thousands hit the deck
And half the world was in the wreck
A wreck that spelled catastrophe
For little folk like you and me.

And now that we have won this war
Again will prices try to soar
With goods a bit in short supply;
We wouldn't even have to try
To boost the ceiling on all things,
From cabbages to wedding rings,
And lose the peace and all beside
For which our sons and brothers died.

It's little folk like us who still Can beat inflation—if we will.

Many a man has found that affections began at the altar.

Lincoln County's Home For The Blind

This fine, large residence in the heart of St. Catharines was purchased from the city and county last spring to house the unfortunate sightless people of Lincoln, who cannot provide for themselves. It is an institution that all residents of the county can be justly proud. It costs money to maintain this home, so won't you do your bit on Saturday of this week when a tag day will be held in Grimsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Liddle and son Robson of Toronto; Mrs. Harold Clarke, Brighton; John and Hugh Liddle, Windsor, were in town on Friday for the funeral of Mrs. Harold C. Jeffries.

Ted. McNisch, Bill Fellows, Ed. Brubaker, Ian Stevenson, Don Pettit and Lewis Puddicombe of Winona, left on Monday to enter O.A.C. Guelph, for various four year courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Platt have received word that their son-in-law Corp. James A. Lane, United States Air Force, is safe. He was a member of the crew of the "Flying Circus" when it flew over Tokyo for the first time.

Both morning and evening services at the Baptist Church were well attended last Sunday to hear Miss Clara Johnston, a missionary from India, speak. Since 1936 Miss Johnston has been stationed on the Himalayan field of the Canadian Baptist Mission in India. She is now on furlough but will soon be returning to India. Miss Marguerite Hodd, of Hamilton, was guest soloist. In the evening, Rev. W. J. Watt and the congregation of Trinity United Church attended, with Rev. Watt assisting Rev. R. C. Standerwick in the service.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, and beautiful floral tributes from our many friends, and the neighbors of John Street, during our recent bereavement, in the loss of our dear father. Special thanks to Dr. McIntyre, Mr. Stonehouse and the Rev. F. McAvoy. The family of the late Harvey Hurst.

Birthday Party

A surprise birthday party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKenzie on Saturday night, September 22nd, at their home, by friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were celebrating their birthdays which were in the month of September, and also their 28th wedding anniversary.

The evening was spent playing cards, the winners being: first prize Miss Jean McKenzie and Mr. Alec Ryan; consolation, Mr. Fred Davis and Mr. Fyett.

A delightful lunch was served after which many lovely gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie.

I.O.D.E.

DO YOU KNOW

THAT for 20 years the Lincoln Loyalist Chapter I.O.D.E. has been sending fresh fruit to the boys in Christie Street Hospital?

THAT Christie Street Hospital still is filled with soldiers from the last war and this war, boys who like fresh fruit?

THAT even though the fruit is scarce this year, the Chapter does not wish to let the season pass without remembering these boys who are suffering for us?

THAT there will be a collection of fresh fruit as usual on FRIDAY October 5th, 1945?

THAT you can help by donating a basket or more of Grapes etc., and sending on collection day to the home of Mrs. E. A. Buckenham corner Main and St. Andrew's, or to Miss Cline, Grimsby Beach?

Many a man needs to snap out of the habit of making snap judgment.

There are two kinds of friends. One sticks to you while the other sticks you.

The Grimsby and District Red Cross held their first meeting since summer, in the Red Cross rooms, on Tuesday, September 26th. Mrs. R. N. Wolfenden presiding.

There is a new quota of sewing and knitting on hand. This is for civilians. There will be no further quotas for the services.

The Red Cross will send a representative to the committee meeting to be held in October, for the National Clothing Collection Drive. At Red Cross headquarters on Friday six cartons were packed for headquarters, three for civilians, one for hospitals, one army and one women's auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Chambers. Conveners were Mrs. J. J. Graham and Mrs. Charles Walker.

RED CROSS TO CONTINUE STRONG AND ACTIVE IN PEACE

In a letter addressed to the 400 Branches of Canadian Red Cross in Ontario, the President of Ontario Division, Mr. C. Bruce Hill declared, "It is true that as an emergency and disaster organization Red Cross rises to greatest heights in time of war but that does not relieve us of the responsibility to continue strong and active in time of peace. Red Cross finished the war high in the confidence of the world at large and our own people, an asset of incalculable value. Let us be sure we do not dissipate it."

"We in Red Cross must finish the war. Our workrooms must continue for suffering abroad is desperate and the need is great. In the aftermath it must be difficult for them to realize that peace is here."

"The Canadian Red Cross could be justly proud of its record in the alleviation of suffering and distress among those caught in the toils of the war just finished, but must put forth the same effort to remain strong and active in time of peace."

Commenting on the current projects which were occupying Red Cross Mr. Hill stated, "Trains are daily bringing back our thousands of Canadian wounded. Red Cross Hospital Lodges must be built and operated for their health and benefit. Our Visiting Committees must never allow a disabled man to feel forgotten. Soldiers and their dependents will be returning for months to come and many will need our guidance, care and assistance."

Our clinics have closed but the National Executive is studying and preparing a plan to provide blood for all civilian hospitals. A post War Plan has been adopted by the Ontario Executive and methods of implementing it are now being considered. A statement regarding this will be issued in the near future.

The reports were given on the rummage sale, at which we realized a splendid amount.

After a short business meeting, the members enjoyed a game of shuffleboard.

Will the members please note that the meetings are at 8 o'clock Monday evenings.

The hostesses for the evening were Miss Pat Dempster and Mrs. H. Campbell.

I.O.D.E.

The September meeting of the Lincoln Loyalist Chapter I.O.D.E. was held in the Chapter room on Monday afternoon, Sept. 24th, with the Regent, Mrs. Buckenham, presiding.

A letter was read from Provincial regarding the used clothing drive for UNRRA and Miss Ann Crane was appointed the I.O.D.E. representative on the local committee.

The War Service report was given by Miss Crane, who advised that two boxes had been given to service men going on to the Pacific, but that with the end of the war with Japan, this had been discontinued, and the goods purchased for this purpose had been put away for the Christmas boxes.

The correspondence read by the Secretary, Mrs. McCausland included letters of thanks for cards and flowers received during the summer months.

The Treasurer's statement given by Mrs. Snyder, showed substantial balances in both the General Fund and the War Services Fund.

In the absence of Mrs. Stevenson, the Educational report was read by Mrs. Lothian. A list of the prize winners has been received from Mr. Smith, and the medal and chain ordered. The teacher of our adopted school has been asked for a list of the pupils for the Christmas boxes.

The final report on the adopted ship was given by Mrs. Leckie. A letter was read from the Commander and a picture of the ship "Interceptor" was shown, a suggestion being made that this picture be framed and hung in the Chapter room.

Mrs. Warner reported that she has wool on hand for babies vests, and that knitters are needed.

The report on war brides and hospitality was given by Mrs. Bromley, who advised that some of our British War Brides have left Grimsby with their husbands, to live elsewhere. Mrs. Bromley also reported visiting a bride in Beamsville, and having her to tea with one from Bermuda, to meet a few local people.

The Immigration and Canadianization report given by Mrs. Lothian, told of the many ways in which our New Canadians are helped with their problems.

A very interesting report on the Girl Guide work was given by Miss Walsh, describing the aims and purposes of the Guides. She advised that Miss Marion Scott had been forced to ask for leave of absence for a year and that a captain was needed in the meantime. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. T. Briggs, of Toronto, wishes to thank her many friends, in Grimsby, for the lovely cards and letters she has received from them, during her recent illness.

Grimsby's First War Bride Baby

Grimsby's first British War Bride baby has arrived, a fine chuckling, cherubic, bouncing seven and a half pound boy.

Master Melvin Stewart Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Scott, was born at Mount Hamilton hospital, on Wednesday, September 19th, 1945.

His mother was the former Kathleen Calahan of Kilmarnock, Scotland. His father had over three years service overseas with the R.C.A.F.

The Independent welcomes this young man to Grimsby and hopes that his life will be one of health, wealth and happiness.

Baptist Choir

On Tuesday evening, the Grimsby Baptist church choir met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millar, Fincrest Farm, for a social evening and Fall get-together.

Election of officers was held, Mrs. C. H. Walker being elected President for the coming year, Mrs. G. R. Roake, secretary, treasurer and Mrs. F. Millar, mistress of robes.

Several piano numbers by Miss Greta Ormiston, and a humorous reading by Mrs. Millar, were enjoyed by the gathering.

At the close of the evening, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Brownies

The 25th I.O.D.E. Brownie Pack held the first meeting of the 1945-46 season on Tuesday September 25th. Sorry, there will not be accommodation for all the little folks wishing to become Brownies.

There was a very fine display of pressed wild flowers, which had been gathered and mounted by one of the Brownies. This collection was a request from Headquarters.

The Brownies have been asked by Chief Commissioner for the Dominion to help with the clothing collection which will be carried out throughout the Dominion from October 1st to 20th, on behalf of the suffering people of the liberated countries.

Vinemount News

Gunner J. V. Clarke has returned home from overseas. He saw action in Italy, France, Belgium, Holland, and Germany.

The residence of William Oldfield, near here, was burned to the ground early Tuesday morning. Mr. Oldfield was badly burned trying to get out of the burning room. He is now in Hamilton General Hospital suffering from shock as well as burns. Mrs. Oldfield escaped without injury. The Stoney Creek fire department responded to the call, but was only able to save the barn. Practically all the contents of the home was destroyed as the fire was fueled by the torrential rain.

Mrs. W. H. Vanduser, Ridge road, celebrated her 88th birthday on September 19th.

The first fall business meeting of the Vinemount Women's Institute was held in the hall last week. Mrs. Adam Reid was appointed receiver of all clothing donated for the Canadian clothing campaign to be held between October 1 and 20. Mrs. Elmer Hildreth had charge of the program. Readings were given by Mesdames Robert Bell and Elmer Hildreth. Mrs. G. A. Giddens presided.

Friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowlsbaugh, newlyweds, gathered at their home Tuesday night of last week and on their behalf Spencer Merritt, Grimsby, presented the bride and groom with a beautiful mirror. Alvin Althouse was chairman and Mrs. Reg. Walker was in charge of the program. The program consisted of vocal solo, Mrs. Stewart Jeffries; vocal duet, Mrs. Stewart Jeffries and Dennis Shaker, and readings.

The officers and members of the Vinemount Women's Institute opened their newly decorated hall with a concert and dance Thursday night, September 20th. The hall was filled to capacity. Guests were present from Blinbrook, Stoney Creek, Fulten, Tapscott, Tweedside, Winona, and the outlying districts. Reeve Wm. Milne, Stoney Creek, was chairman.

Program was as follows: Vocal solos, Mrs. James McEvoy, Blinbrook, Mr. James Twaddle, Stoney Creek, Phyllis Fowler, Tapscott; vocal duets, Misses Dorothy and Rita Thomas, Tapscott. Accompanists, Mrs. Wm. McNeil, Stoney Creek, Mrs. Black, Stoney Creek. Recitations, Mrs. Ernest Twaddle, Vinemount; Mr. Sammy Platt, Stoney Creek. Piano solos, Mr. William Lang, magician, Hamilton, entertained young and old with his many and varied tricks of magic. Little Jo-Anne Clarke, daughter of Gar. J. V. and Mrs. Clarke made her debut before the footlights, by assisting and receiving the bunny rabbit from Mr. Lang's hat.

Greetings and congratulations were expressed by Mrs. James McEvoy, President of South Westworth W.I.; Mrs. Maurice Cudney, President of the Winona W.I.; Reeve Wm. Milne and Councilors John Bridgman and G. M. Found.

The Institute is pleased to announce that on Thursday, October 4th, they will hold a progressive euchre followed by a dance in their hall at 8.15. Music supplied by Les Post, Hamilton. Admission 35c.

Lockhart Speaks

(Hastard report of September 18th)

NEED OF PLUMBING MATERIALS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF SOLDIERS' HOUSES

On the orders of the day. Mr. NORMAN J. A. M. LOCKHART, (Lincoln): I have just received a long distance telephone communication, and I have had no opportunity of consulting with the ministers concerned. Perhaps the responsible minister would allow this to stand as notice of a question. It appears that in the finishing of soldiers' homes, which is a good many urban centres are being rushed to completion by reason of the cold weather, there is a tie-up through the freezing of plumbing fixtures, bath-tubs and so on. I was informed over long distance an hour ago that there are in the airports in St. Catharines, where I come from, hundreds of units of this equipment. Will the appropriate minister inquire whether it would be possible to release them directly in order to get these houses completed rather than have them sent through the channels of the War Assets Corporation, which is a tedious and tiresome procedure? It is urgent that these houses be completed before the cold weather sets in. Dozens of houses in my locality are in need of this equipment, and I suggest that something be done to expedite matters. The equipment is lying there. The Nobel plant has been mentioned. I would ask the appropriate minister to deal with this matter.

Chicken Thieves

Chicken thieves are again becoming active in this district as several chicken raisers have reported losses to Provincial Constable Eddie Priest in the past 10 days.

Constable Priest strongly recommends that all chicken raisers and farmers tattoo brand their fowl, then when thievery takes place the police have some chance of nabbing the culprits.

Farmers and others can secure a registered brand by applying to the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture, Brands Division, Parliament buildings, Toronto.

In youth, a man suffers from the swelling of his head. In middle age, it's his feet that swell.

Library Board To Cut Expenditure

The Grimsby Library Board, at its meeting on Thursday night, decided, in order to keep within its budget for the year, it would be necessary to cut down by about $100 on the purchase of books for the balance of the year.

Circulation for June, July and August was 9,462, and cash received on cards and fines amounted to $62.10 during the same period.

The chairman, Harold Matchett, and Harold Johnson, were appointed to secure a secretary to take the place of J. G. McIntosh, who has resigned, due to ill-health.

Inferior Peaches

Barnia, Sept. 19 (CP).—Complaints made to Mayor W. C. Hipple and other municipal officials regarding the quality of peaches offered for sale on the city market have resulted in a charge being laid against a vendor, it was reported today.

The information has been laid under a city bylaw which prohibits the offering of inferior produce on the city market. The case will be heard by Magistrate C. S. Woodrow next Saturday.

The charge was laid on the instruction of Mayor Hipple, who said the case appeared to be a flagrant attempt to offer for sale peaches which were not fit for consumption.

SPORTOLOGY

(By Bones Livingston, Sportologist)

STRIKES AND SPARES—Monday night opened the bowling and arguing season in Grimsby, when the MEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE got under way with 24 teams, divided into two divisions, setting out to see which one will be the winners of the GLEDHILL AND INGLEHART TROPHY come next April. . . . OLIVER DONALD GORDON SHAW with a great fanfare of cat-wailing led his BLACK CATS to a smart victory over the BOULEVARD when they took four points and rolled up a team score of 3811. BARNEY JOHNSON the big pig and peach man rolled a high 702 for the back fence musicians, and looks like he will win JOHN HEWITT'S two pounds of SLAWSON cheese for this week's high score. . . . Last year's champs, the HEP CATS were not so happy, being trimmed 3-1 by the GAS HOUSE boys from Calcut. RANN was high scorer for the gamers with 688. . . . A new team captained by FRED CASE and carrying the jumping-jack name of COUNTER HOPPERS, took three from the FIREMEN. This team on their first appearance look like they will be a tough outfit to beat all down the line. FIREMEN have been strengthened this year and they might put the fire out of a lot of teams ere the snows have melted. . . . WEST END took a slapping down at hands of the PIRATES with Pirate captain CHARLIE NORMAN rolling a 658. That great bowling champion of a half century, who has bowled before all the crowned heads, pin heads and knot-heads of Europe, Asia, Africa and Grand Old Corners, LITTLE WHIZZER KAN-MACHER, had a tremendous score of 123 for one game and was relegated to the bench by CAP. NORMAN. . . . Oh yes, ARMANDO COMMANDO HUMMEL rolled an unheard of 315 for one game for the fire eaters. . . . Grimsby's own MARVIN "CYCLONE" WENTWORTH is the champion golfer of the Royal York Club, Toronto. . . . Tonight's night that the PEACH QUEEN'S open their 1945-46 season of pin toppling and hair pulling. Good luck beauties. . . . In group two of the MEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE on Tuesday night WILBERT ZIMMERMAN won the HEWITT cheese with 684, beating out HAMMY FOX with 653. PIN TWISTERS, NAIL PUNCHERS, GENERALS and BUTCHERS were the high point winners of the evening. . . . REV. FRANCIS McAVOY may be a top ranking lawn bowler, but heging on the LEGION team he is not too hot, neither is the team, judging by the first night's performance. . . . So long, and be ON TIME for your next game.

The following story from the Famous Fourth Column of J. V. McAree, in The Globe and Mail will be of much interest to residents of this district as Eddie Livingstone, no relation to the editor of The Independent, was well and favourably known in sporting circles in the Fruit Belt. Eddie was the man that first signed that great bunch of old Peach King players, "Pop" McVicar, "Bud" Reid, Artie Clarke, "Buddy" Fisher, and "Cyclone" Wentworth to professional contracts. Those boys belonged to the first hockey team Chicago ever had. Eddie was never able to make Jerry Curran, he going direct to the Canadians.

It was with a shock that on Saturday, Sept. 15th, we read in Mr. Fitzgerald's sports column in the Telegram of the death of Eddie Livingstone. But we find that we are getting used to such shocks. A man you once knew well drops out of circulation, and one day when you ask where he is you find that he has been in a cemetery for some months. So far as we are concerned, and we suppose it is true of most other men of our generation, there are no longer meeting places where one may expect to see his friends, and where if one is missed interest and concern are immediately felt. The tendency of most of us is to keep narrowing the circle of friends and interests. Eventually it will be concentrated on one—oneself—and then it will come altogether. Many of us can recall the time when Eddie Livingstone in the world of sport occupied a position comparable to those held today by Conna Smythe and Peter Campbell. Everybody knew him; and those who knew him best liked and respected him most. He was an outstanding figure in hockey, and he also managed some notable football teams. According to Mr. Fitzgerald he was once a keen cricketer, but of this we have no knowledge. We met him first when he was a reporter on the old Mail and Empire.

As we recall his appearance it seems to us that he resembled both Woodrow Wilson and Jim Coleman. His was a scholar's face, enhanced by his rimless glasses. In manner he was quiet and courteous, but that long jaw of his gave warning that he was not a man who could be talked out of a purpose; still less could he be bulldozed. He was a convivial companion with his friends, but we think of him as a puritan in sport. He was at the peak of his influence at a time when amateurism was verging into professionalism. For a time in Toronto the amateur teams like Livingstone's T.R. & A.A. and St. Michael's outdrew the professionals. People would stand all night in line to buy tickets for some of the historic clashes between these famous amateur teams. Livingstone, no doubt, was paying his players, but we always had an idea that he operated on peanuts, and that he could get amateurs to risk their necks and break their hearts for him just because they liked him, and because he liked them.

On their part the liking was probably founded on respect. Livingstone knew hockey. Nobody knew it better. We think he was the founder of the tradition that has since grown up about Bowles' restaurant as a centre what has been called the Monday morning quarterbacks. Almost any morning about 1 or 2 Eddie could be found there surrounded by a group while he demonstrated with matches on a table or a pencil on a tablecloth how a certain play ought to have been worked out, or how it would be worked out next day. The youngsters hung on his words. Many of them, no doubt, felt that it was an honor to carry a hockey stick, like a torch, for Mr. Livingstone. He interested himself in their affairs. He got them jobs. He got them out of trouble. He gave them good advice which was not applicable to sports arenas only. When we would see him on the street, no matter at what time of the year, he would usually be accompanied, unless he walked alone, by two or three youngsters whose problems he had been considering, and who were hoping that when the time came to put on the football cleats or the hockey skates they would do something by way of acknowledgment.

Eddie Livingstone became head of the Toronto Professional hockey team after Percy Quinn and Frank Robinson dropped out, and was in trouble almost from the beginning. In the end the league in which he held his franchise was dissolved, for no other reason than to get rid of Livingstone. He was denounced by his fellow-magnates—if that is the word—as being impossible to get along with. So far as we could understand the trouble, and in those days we were pretty close to it, the only problem Livingstone presented to the other club owners was the problem presented by a straight steel bar, which somebody wanted to turn into the form of a neat H with the aid of a pair of manicure scissors. Eddie Livingstone was the last fellow in the world with whom you could do that kind of business. We were at the meeting in Montreal in which the new league, minus Livingstone's Toronto club, was organized, and remember hearing the owners offer Percy Quinn the Quebec franchise for nothing, merely to ensure his co-operation and good-will. Percy refused. He was standing by Livingstone.

Later on Livingstone had a Chicago hockey franchise, and this wound up in litigation. One thing that alarmed his fellow club owners was his readiness to appeal to the courts for justice if he thought he was being denied it by the men in control of the sports business. No professional sports organization likes to have the law develop any curiosity about its doings. There is a general fear that some judge or lawyer might come to the conclusion that the Emancipation Act proclaimed by President Lincoln might be appropriately and dammingly cited against the relations between owners and players. But all that Eddie Livingstone ever wanted out of a sports deal was fair play, and that is what essentially he failed to get for himself. He and Percy Quinn had a great deal to do with convincing Tex Rickard and the other American magnates that professional hockey would be a big money winner in the United States. So it proved to be, but when the big money came neither of them got a dollar of it.

THE Electric METER Is for Your Protection

EVEN though your Hydro makes electricity available to you in Ontario at a very low cost, it is important that you pay only for the amount of power that you actually use. The electric meter on duty in your home, is your protection against paying for more than you consume.

Every one of some 800,000 meters in Ontario is tested and certified by a Dominion Government inspector at regular intervals to assure complete accuracy. Electric meters are among the finest of jewelled precision instruments . . . as constantly true as the finest watch.

For your protection, Hydro installs a separate meter, exclusively for your own household. Having a meter of your own is the only possible way to be sure that you only pay for the electricity which you use. Imagine buying food from a merchant who weighs several people's orders at the same time, and splits the cost evenly regardless of the size of the order! You want your order weighed individually when you buy food. When you use electricity your meter assures accurate individual measurement.

Low cost Hydro service in Ontario offers amazing comforts and conveniences. For your protection . . . so that you will pay for only the amount of Hydro you actually use, a Government Inspected Meter is installed for your own household exclusively.

ONCE DREW RELIEF

two had taken time out from the league game in which they had been engaged, in order to check up on Oliver Watt's income tax.

Oliver had gone a long way. A home teacher from The Canadian National Institute for the Blind had taught him how to make use of his strong hands. She had tried to teach him Braille, but Oliver wasn't very good at that. He had learned how to make baskets and leather belts, but more important than anything else, he had discovered that it was possible for men handicapped like himself to work and earn and live.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind brought him into the city, found a boarding house for him, put him through a period of training in the Institute's factory, found him a job running a drill press in a war plant, signed him on the league of blind bowlers put him in the income tax paying class turned him in fact from a liability into an asset, made a citizen of him.

Oliver Watt is not his name, but there is no fiction in the rest of the story. The story is typical of hundreds to be found on the files of The Canadian National Institute for the Blind. It is essential that the C.N.I.B. should be supplied with the funds with which to carry on its great work for it deals with the lives of Canadians. It is easy enough to raise the few dollars required to keep blind men and women in poor clothes, cheap boots and inadequate rooms, but it takes more money to give blind people a real chance, and it is that chance which the money which is now being sought in this community will provide. Every dollar subscribed to the Institute means an improvement in the living conditions and the mental and moral outlook of some blind person.

HAMILTON MARKET

Dr. J. E. Davey, M.O.H., said the health department had no knowledge of any regulation for this reason, adding that if such were the case all grades would have to be covered. It was the impression of the health department inspectors that the regulation was one imposed upon by the W.P. and T.E.

A. F. Smee, market manager, stated that the city by-law previously in force prohibiting the sale of covered fruit, could not be enforced in view of the ruling of War-time Prices and Trade Board officials. Last year attempts had been made to enforce the sale of uncovered fruit, but the W.P.T.B. ordered them to be covered in accordance with its price regulations.

Mr. Smee said to-day that he was receiving many complaints from purchasers that the No. 1 leuco-covered peaches they had bought were wormy, green and unripe. He had a number of baskets brought to his office Saturday morning, which were turned over to Government inspectors.

Asked why pink or red leuco was used, he could only smile as he observed that he had seen purple covers on purple fruit and green covers on green fruit, but never on peaches.

This is the question in many purchasers' minds as they ask:
Why, if covers must be insisted upon on No. 1 grade peaches to get the top price, such covers could not be white or green and not such as to give the deceptive appearance to fruit.

Controller William Weir said he was refusing to buy covered peaches as there were so many which gave a false impression. It meant the seller was disposing of inferior fruit, oftentimes at a higher charge.

A dispatch from Brantford states that city has a by-law which prohibits the covering of baskets with red leuco. A ruling there required that sale of peaches in covered baskets is permitted only when the net was pulled halfway off when peaches were on display.

In the old days it was the gold rush. Now it's a rush to the butcher shop if it is rumored there is some meat there.

Jap Balloons Were Fire Threat To Western Canada

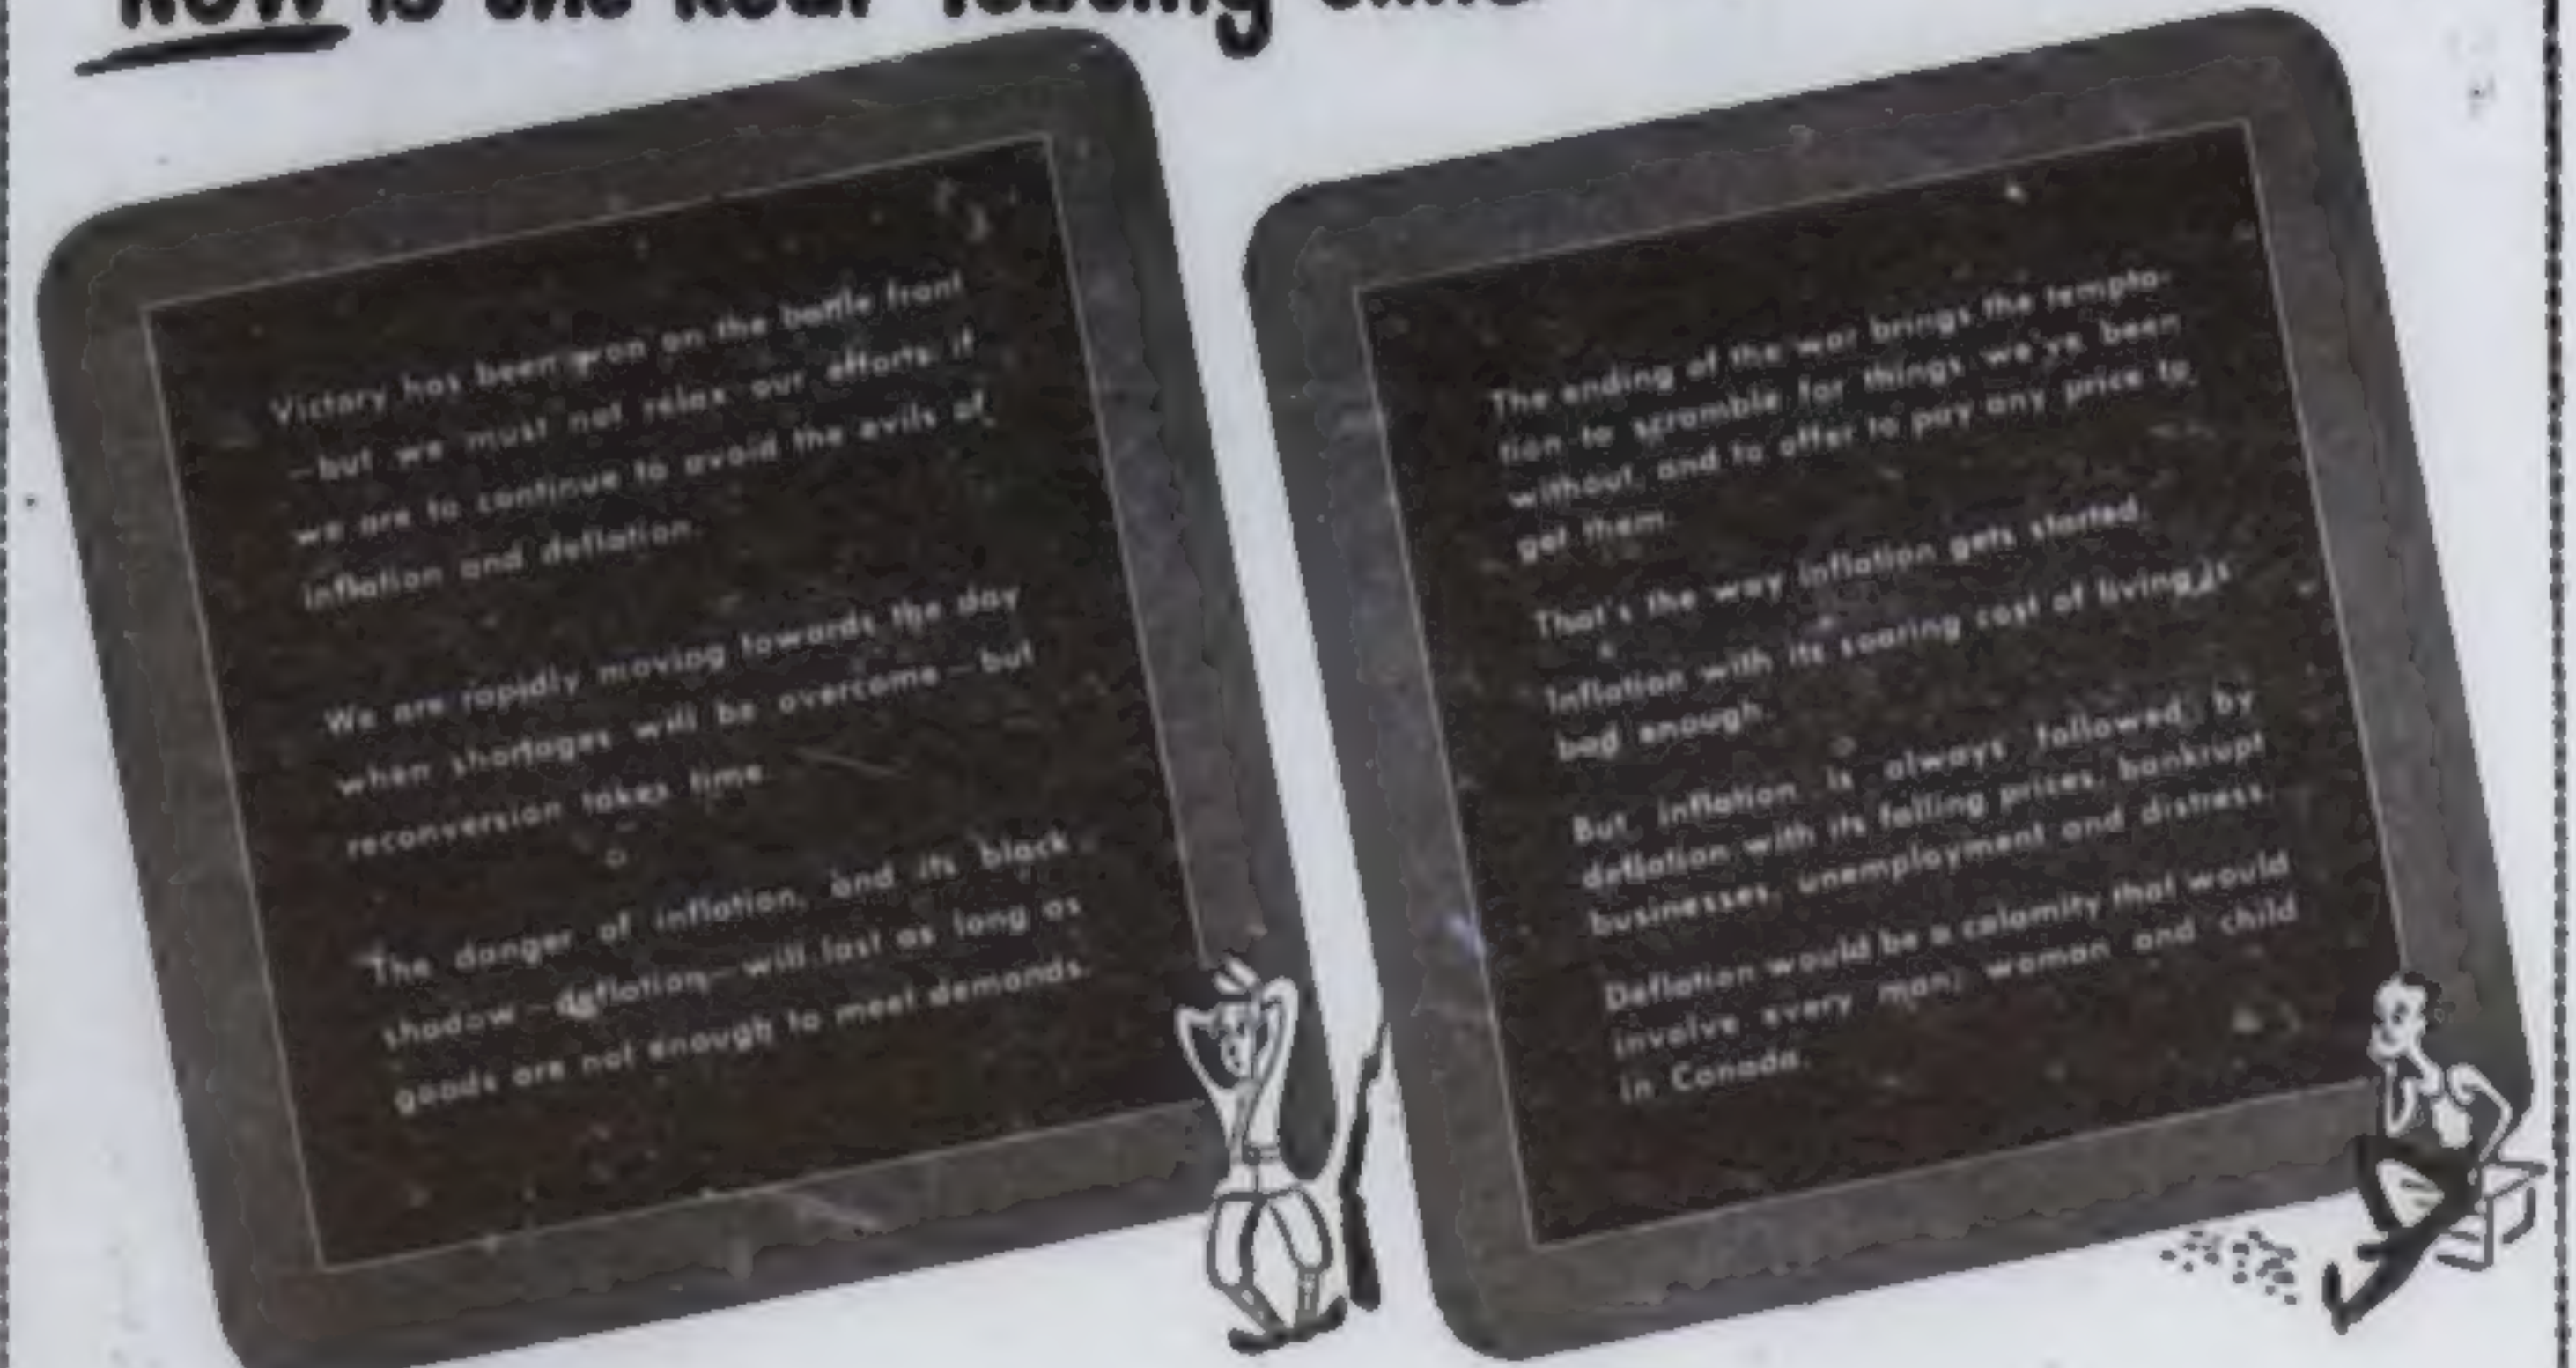

Japanese balloons, carrying incendiary and high explosive bombs, landed in the densely wooded areas of British Columbia and the Prairie Provinces since early in 1945, and might have caused widespread fires had the attacks been made in the summer months. Top left, Lt.-Cmdr.
E. L. Borradale, Officer Commanding the Inter-Service Bomb Disposal Centre, Ottawa, who was despatched to recover and render harmless the first high explosive bomb carried by a Jap balloon, points to a map of Western Canada, which is covered with small flags, indicating where balloons were recovered. Top right, a close-up of the "chandelier", which was suspended from the balloons and carried the ingenious mechanism and bombs. Lower left, a drawing of the Jap balloon.

Lower right, Canadian Army personnel trained to track down and dismantle Jap balloons and their lethal cargoes, are shown gathering in one of the balloons in a remote part of the Prairies last Winter.

The Worst Inflation came after the last war
NOW is the Real Testing time ...

The only controls that are being maintained are those that aid the production of needed supplies and their speedy and fair distribution to the public, and which prevent an inflationary price rise.

As soon as conditions warrant, these will be dropped.

Until industry gets back to normal production, price ceilings, rationing and some controls are a necessary safeguard for everyone of us.

Any person or persons that would do a trick like this should be flogged with a cat-and-nine-tails to within an inch of their life and then locked up for a 100 or more years, with a flogging every Christmas Day.

Had any car driver crashed into any one of these standards a serious accident would have resulted with injuries and possibly death as the toll. On top of that the Town would have been financially liable for damages, owing to the traffic lanes on Main street being obstructed.

clerk was ordered the recommendation.

The roads committee recommended that consideration of the request of the West Lincoln Memorial hospital, that the road leading to it be improved, be deferred until the special roads committee inspects the road in question. The council adopted the recommendation.

The charity and welfare committee reported recommending that the chairman interview representatives of the Children's Aid Society and St. Catharines city council on the subject of establishing suitable quarters for the detention of juvenile delinquents, with a view to deciding what can be done.

PULPIT DEDICATED

pulpit and screen dedicating each separately. In the course of the sermon which followed Bishop Broughall made reference to the part played in the life of this congregation by the Nelles family over a period of many generations and in warm terms to the personality of Mr. Leslie Nelles.

He then went on to speak of the fittingness of the memorial itself so beautiful by harmonious ring with the whole architecture, decoration of the Church. From it, he said, it would be the part of preachers to "herald" the Gospel, to proclaim "good news," and to teach. "May God bless," concluded his lordship, "all who shall preach from this place, and all those who shall hear the Word proclaimed."

During the service the choir under the direction of Mr. Bert Webster sang the anthem "I will lift up my eyes" by Whitfield, as well as a special hymn for the dedication of gifts.

The flowers on the altar were in memory of David Heathcote, R.C.-A.F., who died as a result of an accident while on active service four years ago.

Other flowers in the Church had been sent in memory of Mrs. H. C. Jeffries.

Reference was made during the service to the Harvest Home Festival to be held on Sunday, Sept. 30th.

Boy Scouts

On Saturday afternoon we were surprised to hear marching troops approaching along No. 8 Highway.

In the distance we could hear orders being given such as "you guys keep in line" — left-right-left-right... That's better. When they finally arrived we were surprised to see that it was two scout patrols under the leadership of patrol leader Donald Catton and Donald Mogg starting off for an afternoon's hike along the mountain brow. During the hike one of the Scouts, Bert Buckenham was found to be good at stalking and so he naturally is now known as the great stalker.

How patrol leader D. Catton finally cooked his dinner is only known by the great fire keeper, Donald Mogg. Of course Boogie made sure the fire was in good order until his dinner was cooked to a luscious brown.

In scouting we pride ourselves in lighting fires with not more than two matches and without the use of paper or birch bark. How about that jar of matches that disappeared on this hike.

This Saturday afternoon, Sept. 29th, patrol leaders John Milliard and Donald McAlone are taking their patrols on a hike. Don't forget the scarcity of matches, we will look for a good fire lighting report from your patrols.

Two of our patrol leaders are leaving Saturday afternoon next to do their first class mapping. Property owners on the mountain will please take no notice if two wandering scouts are seen measuring their property in detail. They are harmless and just fulfilling their Scout duties.

Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. the Court of Honour will meet at troop leader Leon Betzner's home. Patrol leaders and seconds are urgently asked to attend.

1254 Animals In Three Months

In glancing over the records of Inspector Henry of the Lincoln County Humane Society for the past three months, it is interesting to note that a total of 1,254 animals handled by the inspector and the assistant, and visitors to the Shelter, on the Martindale Road, according to Inspector Henry, are now averaging about 180 a month.

During the past three months 73 dogs have been placed in new homes and 29 claimed by their owners.

Other bits of interesting information on the every-day duties of the inspector was the releasing from captivity of a raccoon, 34 homes were found for cats and six horses were humanely destroyed, one suffering from a brain hemorrhage, a rare but incurable ailment.

A successful politician is the one who stays one jump ahead of public opinion.
